Opening Act

5 Big Ideas to Personalize Learning in Your Classroom

Presented By:

Scott Kinkoph

Instructional Coach and Technology Integrationist
Brecksville-Broadview
Heights City Schools

The era of personalized learning is all the rage in education; but, it's not all high-tech, glitz, and glamour. The Internet is chock full of resources, ideas, blog posts, and tweets about making learning personal, and maybe you have asked yourself these questions:

- What exactly does it mean to personalize learning?
- Why try to make learning personal for your students?
- Where to start?

Creating a personal learning environment for learners is a fulfilling and amazing journey. Scott's presentation will inspire you to create personalized for your students!
