

Nominations now being accepted!

At the April 9, 2019
ideastream Education Advisory Council Meeting,
Three Northeast Ohio educators, or teams of educators, will be honored and provided the opportunity to present outstanding examples of how they are transforming instruction while integrating instructional technology.

Selected educators will be provided 20 minutes to share:

- A demonstration
- An overview of effective methodologies
- An innovative integration of technology AND/OR
- Technology used to create student projects

Please nominate an educator, or team of educators, that demonstrate the above in an exemplary way.

Self-Nominations will be accepted.
